Targets:

- Successful Organisation of the 75th IFLA General Conference and Assembly
- Welcome participants from 120 different countries
- Provide accommodation services for the participants

IFLA (International Federation of Library Associations and Institutes) is the leading international body representing the interests of library and information services and their users. With 1700 Members in 150 countries, it is the global voice of the library and information profession.

The IFLA congress has a comprehensive programme to attract professionals from all areas of the Library and Information sector. The delegates range from archivists to statisticians from Public, Educational, Medical, Children and Religious Libraries. The World Library and Information congress attracts over 3000 delegates from over 115 countries each year making the conference a truly international event.

2009 celebrated the 75th anniversary of the IFLA Congress which first took place in Rome in 1928 which represented the first meeting for the International Foundation of Library Associations. In 2009 the World Library and Information Congress came back to Italy, this time, in Milan from 23 to 27 August 2009 at the Milan Convention Centre.
